WHAT CAN BRIANA CYMONE DO FOR ME?

AN INTERVIEW WITH THE COUTURE EVENT ARCHITECT

What is Briana Cymone's role in my event?

I meet with all clients & detail a custom plan & design for each event. I assure every blueprint element is primed for a flawlessly cohesive & well executed occasion. My experienced & well trained creative team of planners & designers assist with the organization & installation of BC events. Together we evoke an astounding & unforgettable experience for you & your guest to enjoy.

What sets Briana Cymone apart from other event planners and designers?

It's more than a passion, the love, experience, will, humility, pioneering, innovation, conquering disposition, trendsetting, & personality is throughout. My gift for embracing your vibrant colors of devotion & infatuation with celebrating them allow me to depict the perfectly imperfect abstract art known as YOU, motif!

Do you offer month of coordination?

No. I take on the entire focus of my clients' event needs utilizing my education, skills, gifts, & experience for only full-service event productions or design projects. Full service is inclusive of the planning, designing, coordination, styling and more for your entire event. I'm passionate about life's celebrations!

Who is your ideal client that you work best with?

I work best with positive clients who appreciate the value in my professional event services. You may not know exactly what you want & may not always be organized. My purpose is to cultivate & enhance your dream day! I love collaborating with unique personalities who enjoy their leisure, yet are accountable. They respect their peace of mind & entrust me. Lastly, you value my expertise & forge creativity with no bounds.

How many events do you produce in one day?

I provide & only accept diamond treatment for my clients. This requires my vivid focus & absolute passion to the particulars of each individual celebration. I accept a limited number of events per year allowing me to be fully vested in the success of only one clients' events per day.

WHAT CAN BRIANA CYMONE DO FOR ME?

AN INTERVIEW WITH THE COUTUR EVENT ARCHITECT

How long have you been producing weddings & special events?

I've planned and designed meetings, weddings, and special events for well over a decade. Since each event is unique from any other, we provide full-service productions custom from conception to completion according to clients needs, style, and planned expenditure.

Are you certified and insured?

Yes, as a certified planner & designer I take pride in my bona-fide business and positive rapport with our clients + wedding/event industry colleagues. Briana Cymone has been in business since 2011 and holds valid business liability insurance policies. As an industry leader, I provide professional development through innovative and educational industry events. I learn something new with each event.

What type of events do you plan?

I love unique weddings, corporate retreats, fundraising galas, dinner parties, bar/bat mitzvahs, product launches, push parties, bridal showers, & all of life's celebrations, just ask!

What is a realistic budget for Briana Cymone to plan or design my event?

Due to my limited availability, reputable creative partners, and to ensure you receive the ultimate client experience & quality services, I require a $150,000 minimum event investment. Factors such as location, style, allotted time, guest count, & season may influence the overall event expenditure.

How do I begin the process to work with you?

I'm excited to heed to your visions and expectations for your special day. Let me know what you are celebrating in the websites inquiry form. Include details & inspiration about your vision. We'll review the details of your application and contact you for an Initial Consultation. Expectations and ability ignite in the initial consultation! With great enthusiasm & a heightened creative inclination, I'll listen to the details, wants + wishes, & must-haves of your special day.
